

- bridging, 189–90, 336
- color words, 200
- community core values and, 191
- compassionate language, 190
- complexity-to-process, 190, 337
- contrast, 191
- disparagement, 198, 340
- employee core values and, 191–92
- influencing others, 196
- memorability, 196–97
- negative language and concepts, 193–95, 199
- newsworthiness, 197
- non-technical language, 198
- ownership, 198
- pacing, 198
- packaging and bundling, 198
- persuasiveness, 198–99
- positive language, 193–95, 199
- power words, 200
- pyramid-like answers, 200, 349
- repetition, 200
- sensitivity to core values, 191
- sensitivity to victims, 201
- specificity, 196
- story-like construction, 201
- themes/key messages, 201, 353
- Anticipation of questions, 187
- Apology
 - defined, 335
 - litigation and, 320, 323–25
 - public forgiveness and, 123
 - to victims, 28
- Arbitration, 305, 324, 325, 335
- Arrogance, 10, 26–27, 51, 56, 281, 317, 335
- Assault, 10, 335
- Attack sites, 21, 215, 336, 352
- Attorneys, guidelines for working with, 300–314
 - building relationships with, 298–99
 - communication behaviors to avoid, 307–12
 - control of, 305–6
 - general rules, 300–302
 - press policies, 306
 - privileged communication, 313–14, 348–49
 - reporters, talking to, 308–9
 - work product doctrine, 313–14, 355–56
- Attributes of news, 140–42
- Axioms of crisis survival, 55–56
- B
- Backbiting, 51
- Berserk employees, 11, 336
- Bewilderment, 44
- Bickering, 51
- Bing, 209, 215. See also Social media
- Blogs. See also Social media
 - case study, 244–46
 - key audiences, 226–27
 - monitoring social media by, 216
 - overview, 209–11
 - ubiquity of, 243
- Boards of directors, responsibilities of, 91–92
- Bomb threats, 11, 16, 17
- Bosses. See Executives
- BP/Deepwater Horizon crisis (2010). See Deepwater Horizon crisis (2010)
- BrandProtect, 214, 219
- Bridging, 189–90, 336
- British Petroleum Deepwater Horizon crisis, 206, 210–11, 218–19, 224, 243
- Bullying, 10, 165, 336
- Business continuity plans, 99, 336
- Business loss, 11
- C
- “Call Headquarters If” process, 92–94

- Callousness, 10, 336
- Candor, 123, 319, 336
- Carelessness, 10
- Categories of crises, 17–22
 - combination operating/non-operating crises, 21
 - competitive targeting, 21–22
 - local events, 18
 - non-operating crises, 15, 19–21
 - operating crises, 15, 18–19
 - web-based attacks, 21–22
- CCCCS (Crisis Communication Command Center Staff), 89
- CCCRO (Corporate Crisis Communication Response Officer), 88–89, 338
- Checklists for news conferences, 173
- Chemical spills, 17
- Chief executive officers (CEOs)
 - compliance practices, 280
 - data needed by, 41
 - information needed by, 41–42
 - inside mind of, 39–40
 - main tasks of, 40–41
 - perception issues, 41–42, 348
 - real-time responses, 42
 - responsibilities of, 91
- Chief financial officers (CFOs),
 - responsibilities of, 91
- Chief information officers (CIOs),
 - responsibilities of, 91
- Chief operating officers (COOs),
 - compliance practices, 280
- Citizen journalists, 203, 204, 210, 253, 336
- Civil litigation, 291–92, 336
- Coercive telephone calls, 11
- Cold logic, 51–52
- Color words, 162–63, 200, 336
- Combination operating/non-operating crises, 21
- Command center approach, 109, 336
- Commission, 10, 336
- Commitment, 124, 320
- Communications
 - with activists, 249–77. See also Activists, coping with leadership’s role in, 33–64. See also Leadership building litigation, 279–326. See also Litigation and legal activities media relations, 125–68. See also Media relations news conferences, 169–202. See also News conferences plans, 97–124. See also Crisis communication plans preparation of organizations, 65–96. See also Preparation of organizations social media, 203–48. See also Social media
- Communications organizations, 87
- Community core values
 - defined, 337
 - message development and, 118–19
 - news conferences and, 191
 - threat identification and, 72–73
- Community involvement audits, 66–67, 337
- Community relations, 18, 54, 56, 72, 84, 337. See also Community core values angry community response, 98 audience analysis, 74 communication with community leaders, 85 community environment chart, 75 public forgiveness and, 123–24
- Compassionate language
 - defined, 337
 - in litigation, 284
 - with media, 132
 - in news conferences, 190